

What is Big V?

Big V is the Senior Premier State Basketball League in Victoria.

The league comprises 12 competitions, with its two main ones being the men's (SCM) and women's (SCW) State Championship divisions.

Below the SCM and SCW is: Division One Men (D1M), Division One Women (D1W), Division Two Men (D2M), and Division Two Women (D1W).

The remaining six competitions are youth divisions, with those being: Victorian Youth Championship Men (VYCM), Victorian Youth Championship Women (VYCW), Youth League One Men (YL1M), Youth League One Women (YL1W), Youth League Two Men (YL2M), and Youth League Two Women (YL2W).

The Youth Leagues is an U24 competition, with up and coming stars such as Monique Conti and Ezi Magbegor who have participated in these leagues in previous seasons.

The Senior leagues has also seen many National League players participating including Nathan Soeby, Alice Kunek, Rebecca Cole and Hume City Broncos ex-players Colleen Planeta and Sharin Milner.

Your home team - the Hume City Broncos – compete against other clubs around the state, with the ultimate goal of becoming State Champions.

The Hume City Broncos have 4 teams:

Youth Men (Division 1)

Youth Women (State Championship Division)

Senior Men (State Championship Division)

Senior Women (State Championship Division)

Hume City Broncos players to watch:

American Imports:

Mike Rose and Trevon Clayton (Senior Men)

Kelly Hardeman & Lisa Murphy (Senior Women)

Aussie Hoops Coaches

Aleks Milivojevic (Youth Men)
Hannah Mrakov (Youth Women/Senior Women)
Sophie Byrnes (Youth Women/Senior Women)

Junior Broncos Coaches:

Shaun Prendergast (Senior Men)
Leilani Siamoa, Paige Tawaf, Hannah Mrakov, Ellen Wrigt, Jayde Kirk, Jaime Germaine-Gray,
Rachele Carrozza (Youth Women), Aleks Milivojevic (Youth Men)

The Hume City Broncos are actually one of the most successful clubs in history within Big V, with the Senior Champ Women taking out 6 State Championship titles (most out of any other club), with the most recent one being in 2016.

We hope to see you supporting the local Broncos this Big V Season!

Home Game Fixture

